Family Fun Fest Survey

Did you take a child to the 7th Annual Family Fun Fest on March 20, 2010, at the Indiana Mall? Please let the planning committee know your thoughts by taking the short, anonymous, survey linked below:

<http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07e2t8k1mig72kldz5/start>

Thank you in advance for participating in this survey. Your opinion is very important. Your responses will help Indiana County Community Engagement to improve next year's Family Fun Fest, and to plan future events for children and families.

Maureen Pounds and Kathy Abbey-Baker, Co-Chairs
Family Fun Fest Planning Team

(Please note: If you had a table/area at the Fun Fest and provided activities for children and information for parents, an Exhibitors Survey link will be sent directly to the email address of the contact for your agency /organization listed on the participant registration form.)

"Into the Streets"

The IUP Office of Service Learning is again sponsoring its annual "Into the Streets" day of service. The date for this event is Saturday, April 24, 2010. "Into the Streets" is a national project that encourages university members to participate in the local community's outreach services. This exciting program provides students with an introductory service experience while also supporting an ongoing involvement in community service affairs.

We are asking Indiana human service agencies to identify a project that may be completed by IUP students on April 24, 2010. Examples of past projects include: tree planting/landscaping, fundraising, conducting clean up efforts, painting, and offering services to the aged or physically challenged.

We welcome any projects from your agency; however in order to better prepare our students for their project with your agency, please provide a detailed description (ie. type of work, necessary attire, etc.) in the "Additional Comments" section of the application. Student starting times are dependant upon the needs of the agency and can be discussed with the Office of Service Learning. Please complete the application by Monday, April 5, 2010 by visiting the following website: <http://www.iup.edu/page.aspx?id=26193>

There will also be a meeting for students and project leaders from your agency on Monday, April 12, 2010 at 5:30 PM in the Ohio Room, located in the Hadley Union Building.

We hope that our university's enthusiasm encourages you in joining "Into the Streets." Should you have any question about the program, please contact the Office of Service Learning at (724) 357-3103 or (724) 357-2235. We look forward to working with your organization on this wonderful event that strengthens our community!

Lupus: An Urgent Public Health Issue

Lupus is one of America's least recognized major diseases. It is a chronic, autoimmune disease that affects an estimated 1.5 million Americans – 90% of whom are women. The Lupus Research Institute or LRI and its national network of patient advocates believe it's time to alert American women to the risks and dangers of lupus!

The Lupus Foundation of Pennsylvania is a non-profit health organization dedicated to promoting awareness, education, services and research for those affected by lupus. The Foundation, working in partnership with the Lupus Research Institute, supports research to find treatments and a cure for lupus. In service since 1975, the Foundation also provides comprehensive patient services, including support groups, education and awareness activities. For current information about lupus or to learn how you can help, contact Marian Belotti RN in Pittsburgh by calling 412-261-5886 or on line at mbelotti@lupuspa.org.
